NEVER FEAR CHRIS IS HERE!

On Saturday, March 29, hundreds of brave teddies parachuted from a raised platform manned by members of Salisbury Fire Brigade's Red Watch by the Cathedral's West Front for the Mayor's Appeal. Unfortunately, one teddy, Chocy, ended up trapped in a tree. This left a very worried owner until Monday when Head Verger Chris Simpson came to the rescue and managed to retrieve Chocy with a 10metre long duster with Hoover pipes attached! £5,000 was raised to provide specialist equipment for Sarum Children's Ward.

FUNDRAISING SUCCESS

Salisbury Cathedral Junior Choir gave a wonderful concert on March 15 for their families, friends and supporters before moving into the Cloisters for a fund-raising coffee morning, cake sale and raffle. The choir was raising funds to help pay for coaches to Cardiff to take part in a major concert and to offset costs of a Christmas CD. As a result of fantastic support, baking by parents and children, an army of volunteers to sell everything, a plethora of great raffle prizes and refreshments provided by Milburns, they raised over £600! This non-auditioned choir is open to any boy or girl in school years 4-8. For details contact s.flanaghan@salcath.co.uk or call (01722) 555148.
